

Did you know ?

Diverse activities are essential for early childhood development, especially for purposes of language and communication.

Experience Screen-Free WOW Moments with your children!

Dare to make deliberate mistakes when dressing your child or during mealtimes.

Laughs guaranteed!

Look at a book with your child and describe the images in simple language.

Make up a silly story just for fun!

Play I spy during your daily activities, on the way to daycare or home, at the grocery store, with the cereal box, etc.

Ask your child to give you something to look for!

Follow us on Facebook so you don't miss anything

Discover all the Screen-Free WOW Moments!
on our website

Groupe de Travail Montréalien
Orthophonie et développement du langage